Six Months' Pay Deserved.

Nir. Editor: In justice to 29 per cent of the veterans of the Spanish American war. I wish to repuliate the stand of the correspondent in your issue of the 4ff, inst., who signs himself F. J. G. He apparently forgets that when he was must read out in 1892, he was paid a bonus of one month. He does not consider that where one man that when he was have the he was paid a bonur of one mouth. He does not consider that where one man was mustered out in '99, there are 15 men being discharged today, and that industrial conditions are tastly different today. He insimates a little sneer when he says that he "volunteered," not taking into consideration that the only reason we did not resort to the draft in '98 was because we did not need so many mense. He says that he state of Connecticu owes him nine days' pay. Has that anything to do with the federal government? I am in complete accord with the opinion in the opini need so many ment. He says that the state of Connections two shim mine days' pay. Has that anything to do with the federal government? I am in complete accord with the opinion expressed by O. M. B. and believe that he has also expressed the opinion of every last Spanish War. Veteran It is by no means a new idea that there should be a real budget for the guidance of causares. Efforts in that direction have by no means accompay. They deserve it, and everything clac they can get for God knows they will be forgotten soon enough. And they'll find the U.S. W. V. backing
